The first five teams in the League race are so sely bunched this merning that there is a ntinued their brilliant playing yesterday, in spite of the absence of Jones, Jennings and Dahlen, and captured a double-header from the Washingtons. This achievement enabled the Brooklyns to tle the Cincinnatis for fourth place, even though the latter defeated the St. Louis team with ease. The demoralized New York team was again whitewashed by the Philadelphias. Fortunately, though, the locals did not drop below the Louisvilles, as that team was beaten out by Chicago in a close game. The Bostons had hard work to defeat the Baltimores by a score of 2 to 1, while Pittsburg shut out Cleveland. The results:

As evidence of the popularity of Hanlon's Superbas, nearly 5,000 persons, including paid one and deadheads, eat in a drizzling rain vesterday afternoon at Washington Park and gloated over the winning of a double header from Irwin's unfortunate players. Had the weather been provided as the crowd would probably have been twice as large, as it was the Brooklyns' first Saturday at home since the opening game. In both contests the visitors were easily disposed of, for the excellent reason that they couldn't hit the Brooklyn pitchers, while their own twirlers were comparatively easy. The Brooklyns gave

PHILADELPHIA, 3: NEW YORK, 0.

PRIMADELPHIA, May 13.—New York did not baye a "look in" in to-day's game with Philadelphia, as is indicated by the disparity in the base-hit columns. Fificid's pitching was altogether too deep an enigma for the visitors, who secured but three widely separated singles. On the other hand, Coleolougis was a shining mark for the local sluggers, who touched up his delivery safely eighteen times for a total of twenty-eight bases. Not only were the hits numerous and long drawn out, but they were made at the right time. Despite the terrific cannonsding which they were compelled to face, the New Yorks played a splendid fielding game. Davis's fumble of Flick's hard grounder 1: the first inning being the only error charged against them. The men behind Flickid also played a superb fielding game, a poor throw after a sensational stop by Lauder being the misplay made by the Quakers. Attendance, 5.344. PHILADELPHIA, 9; NEW YORK, 0.

PITTERURG, May 13.—Tannehill pitched a splendid game against Gleveland to-day and scored a shut-out. Only four times during the nine innings did the visitors bat beyond the innel. The fielding and batting of Madison was another feature. Sockalexis made an attempt to cover right field and misjudged three flies. The score:

Harvard was also well backed in the grand stand, and the crimson flags fluttered upstrongly at times over Princeton's brighter orange. The rain was coming down steadily when the teams finished warming up, but after a conference between Umpire Hurst and Capts. Kafer and Haughton it was decided to play the game. Harvard started in to bat.

Neither side scored until the fourth inning. With one out Clarke hit safely, went to second on Haughton's sacrince, and reached third on Hutchings's miss of Held's grounder. Clarke scored a minute later on Bedford's wild return throw to the plate, the ball being sent by Kafer to second to enter held stealing. In Princeton's half Hillebrand picked out one of Morse's benders and sent it to the track for three bases. Harrison was sent to first on balls and stole second. Reid threw wild to catch him and Hillebrand scored. In the sixth inning Morse went up in the air and the whole Harvard team accompanied him. The Tigers took advantage of everything that was going and when things were cleared up the game was settled.

Swarthmore passed ofteneat and better than in any previous game, showing a marked improvement over their playing in the Stevens game last Tuesday. Columbia was allowed but one shot for goal, and that went wide. Jackson at home played the best attack game for Swarthmore, making three of the five goals. Seaman and Tyson each secred once.

After the race the two coxswains joined in congratulations, as did the other men of the crows. On next Saturday the University of Pennsylvania and the cadets will meet on the Severn. Hundreds of persons lined the Naval Academy sea wall to witness the sport, and almost as many went out in boats, the Government steamer Standish, torpedo boats Manley, Gwin and Taibot being utilized for the purpose. HARVARD TRIUMPRS OVER TALE. Crimson's Track Team Wins by 19 1-8 Points and Reeps the 8500 Cup.

New HAVEN, May 13 .- Twenty-five hundred persons saw the Harvard track team defeat the Yale team at the Yale Field this afternoon, the score by points being: Harvard, 54%; Yale, 41%. In addition to the athletic supremacy bridge athletic delegation also comes into permanent possession of a magnifi-cent trophy, a $500 silver cup, which was presented by the graduates of Yale and Harvard, the cup to become the property of the track team that won gve out of eight dual games between the two universities. No more jubilant crowd has left New Haven in months than the Harvard delegation which started back to Cambridge to-night in company with the members of the victorious team. Yale's campus was in gloom. It was the opinion of Manager Mages and Trainer Cope-land last night that Yale would win and two more disappointed men could not be found in Yale circles to-night over the Har-and two more disappointed men could not be found in Yale circles to-night over the Harvard victory. The only explanation advanced by the Yale admirers for the defeat is that a number of the new or green men on the team fell short in the work they had been doing in practice. Then Harvard, too, they state, presented a rattling set of veterans.

The races were all of a high class from the stanipoint of competition. In the quarter-mile run and in the 220-yard dash Dixon Boardman, the wonderful Yale freshman, and Thomas Burke, the Harvard champion, fought it out to a finish. In the quarter Boardman was beaten by ten feet, but in the 220-he not only shut out Burke, but defeated Quinlan, Harvard's star, by six inches, picked up by a spurt at the finish.

In the half-mile run O. P. Adams of Yale covered the distance in 1 minute 57 4-5 seconds, establishing a new Yale record. This was the only record that was broken in the games. In all the events the time made was very good, considering that the day was chilly and that a slow rain drizzled all through the afternoon. Summaries:
